CARDINAL VIRTUE: PRUDENCE

Hi guys! Good to see many of you last Sunday. We are glad to hear that you are enjoying school and are learning well. It is important to learn so that you develop the ability to make right judgments or right choices and to know and do what needs to be done. It is about looking at what is going on truthfully and making decisions based on the truth. It is knowing good and bad and making appropriate actions. This ability to make right choices is called prudence. Prudence is a cardinal virtue because other virtues connect to it.

There are 3 more Cardinal Virtues and we will cover them later. For now, boys and girls, see if you can find more virtues below.

See you all in Church, guys!

Humility Fortitude Charity Faith Generosity
Meekness Wisdom Prudence Patience Hope
