"What does it profit you to give God one thing if He asks of you another? Consider what it is God wants, and then do it." - St. John of the Cross

Along the Mystical Carmelite Way ...

Scripture and Lectio Divina

Attentiveness to God's Word in the Holy Scriptures, the Bible, is essential to all Christians. Throughout its 800 years, Carmelite spirituality has placed a particularly strong emphasis on pondering Scripture. Carmelites, whether lay or religious, are expected to spend some time each day taking up the Bible.

Hearing, praying and living the Word - in silence, in solitude and in community, especially in the form of lectio divina - Carmelites are led, day by day, to know and experience the mystery of Jesus Christ. Inspired by the Holy Spirit and rooted in Christ Jesus, abiding in him by day and by night, Carmelites allow every choice and every action to be guided by

His Word. Inspired by the Word and in communion with the whole Church, the Carmelites come together to praise the Lord, and invite others to share in their experience of prayer.

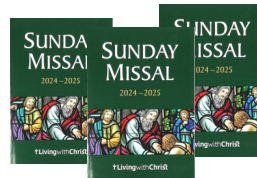

Let Us Pray for the Souls in Purgatory

All Souls Day, celebrated on November 2, is a day set aside in the Roman Catholic Church to pray for the souls in purgatory. The Church teaches that purgatory is a temporary state of purification for those who have died in God's grace but still carry the effects of venial sins (forgiven and unforgiven) and forgiven mortal sins. The faithful on earth are called to offer prayers, sacrifices, and Masses to help these souls attain the beatific vision—eternal life with God in heaven. This day emphasizes the doctrine that many of the souls of the faithful departed need our prayers as they complete their purification.

Complete the online form to have the souls of your friends and families be included in the Book of Life which will be placed in front of the altar and prayed for in the whole month of November.

https://bit.ly/2024bookoflife

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let your perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

2024—2025 Sunday Missal is now available in the Parish Office for $5.

SECURITIES AS A CHARITABLE GIFT

One of the most financially sound ways to support the Archdiocese of Toronto is a gift of securities (stocks, bonds, mutual funds). When you donate stocks, mutual funds and other publicly traded securities to a registered charity, you pay no capital gains tax and receive a tax receipt for the full amount of the gift. It means a great tax break for you and more significant support of your parish and various archdiocesan charities such as ShareLife, St. Augustine's Seminary, The Shepherds' Trust and many others. To donate securities, follow this link: Archdiocese of Toronto - Gift of Securities (archtoronto.org) and download the "How to Gift Securities Info Sheet" and "Letter of Direction." For more information, contact development@archtoronto.org.

YOUNG ADULT CONFERENCE

RENEW Toronto is a conference for all young adults ages 19-39 taking place on Saturday, Nov. 23, 2024 at Canada Event Centre. The day includes keynotes by Dr. Andrew & Sarah Swafford, worship lead by Steadfast Worship, various workshop speakers, Confessions, Mass, Eucharistic Adoration and fellowship. This conference offers unique opportunities for students, young adult professionals and young couples.

"Those who hope in the Lord will run and not be weary." - Isaiah 40.31.

Registration ends Monday, Nov. 4, 2024. For more information and to register, visit: www.renewtoronto.org

INTERNATIONAL FOOD FESTIVAL

This year the festival is to be held at Nessinger Hall on Saturday, November 9th, 2024, following the 5pm Mass.

This event is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate our diverse community and share our culinary traditions. To make this festival a success, we need your help! We are looking for volunteers to prepare and bring dishes from various cultures. Whether it's a family recipe or a favorite dish, your contributions will help create a delicious experience for all. If you would like to participate, please sign up at the back of the church. We appreciate your generosity and look forward to celebrating together!

Entry tickets: $5 will be sold after every Sunday Mass this weekend.

Items donated will be available for sale. All funds going to St. John of the Cross Church. Thank you.

God speaks in the gentle breeze.
